

Quality for Selection
Quantity of Service

Ivers & Pond Pianos

Furniture Dealer
Funeral Director

We have recently secured the agency for the world famous Ivers & Pond pianos. If you need a piano, that for tone quality, thorough construction and beautiful finish, cannot be excelled, get the IVERS & POND.

ALMA, the best city of its size in MICH.

G. V. WRIGHT

Ambulance Service.
Both Phones.

EUROPEAN CAFE

V. A. Miner, Proprietor

SAVE ONE DAY'S BOARD

BY PURCHASING A

$4.00 Meal Ticket for $3.50

Join in a

Go-to-Church Campaign

Beginning now

FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Sunday 10 a. m. and 7 p. m.

TIMELY TOPICS

INSPIRING MUSIC

I hope 2 C U there

VAUDETTE

3 BIG FEATURE NIGHTS 3

Tuesday, Thurs. Friday

Mistress of the Air

Tuesday, Oct. 20

Adventures of Kathleen

Beginning Friday Oct. 23

Showing every alternate Friday

The Bond of Love

Friday, Oct. 30.

A two-part drama written and played by the members of the Yale University Dramatic Ass'n

Perils of Pauline

Thursday Nov. 12

Thrills, Adventures, Narrow Escapes,

Villains, Love.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark and family and Mrs. L. Clark spent several days last week in Owosso with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Clark expect to move on a farm near Riverdale next week.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. David Currell left Thursday for Farwell.

Miner's restaurant has installed two gas ranges.

Guy Campbell of Flint was a guest of Alma friends Sunday.

James Klein and Miss Della Corey spent Sunday in St. Louis.

Arthur Whiten was in Saginaw one day last week on business.

Bope Butler spent the week end in Bad Axe with his parents.

L. A. Sharpe spent Friday hunting for birds north-west of Alma.

V. P. Cash has purchased the Clark property on Grant Ave.

Get Lyceum Course ticket coupons early of Mahr, Notestein or Gates.

Miss Mable Rogers entertained her sister from Lansing over Sunday.

Miss Mildred Sweatland of Mt. Pleasant was an Alma visitor Thursday.

George Maier, Pat Patterson, and Orville Allen were Saginaw visitors Sunday.

Editor Mudge, of the St. Louis Independent, was an Alma business visitor Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Farr spent Friday with their son, Sumner Farr, near Forest Hill.

J. M. Page, J. Robinson, and G. S. Ward left the first of the week for Houghton Lake to spend a few days hunting and fishing.

G. B. PORTER REGISTERED OPTOMETRIST

Fine Watch Work a Specialty.

Next to Banghart's Market

123 E. Superior Street. Alma, Michigan

First Lyceum ticket drawing Monday, October 19.

Glen Van Horn has returned to his work in Detroit.

Joe Sawkins, of St. Louis, spent Tuesday in Alma.

A new supply of home-made candles at Luchini's this week.

Ypsi Normals vs. Alma at Davis Field Friday afternoon.

Mr. Cumstock visited in Breckenridge the last of the week.

Chas. Rhodes and son Leo returned from Lakeview Friday evening.

Home-made Jersey Cream Taffy at Luchini's Fruit Store this week.

Mrs. Clark, of Ithaca, came Saturday to visit her friend, Mrs. J. Grear.

Mrs. Wm. Lowe went to Lansing Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Herman Engle.

John Berry's family, on route 4, were quarantined Tuesday morning with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Curtis, of Swanton, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. Horton, at the home of her nephew, John Horton.

Don't forget that Alma College is going to draw the Ypsi Normals at Davis Field Friday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. M. Hubbard entertained the former's parents of Waldron, Mich., from Monday until Friday.

Miss Cobb, of Shepherd, who has been the guest of Miss Hazel Waterbury, returned to her home Friday.

Mrs. A. P. Stites entertained her brothers, Will and Amos Riley, of Columbus, Ohio, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Clyde Plank, manager of the Family Theatre, Middleton, accompanied by his wife, spent the first of this week in Alma.

Keep the falling leaves raked clean from your lawns. Keep up Alma's reputation of being the cleanest city in Gratiot county.

The Ferris and Richland Township S. S. Convention will be held at the King school house in Ferris township Sunday, October 18.

Isaac Byard, who went to Toledo Thursday to visit his sister, will visit at Cold Water, Battle Creek and other places before returning home.

Any one having old magazines to be sold for the benefit of the Presbyterian Fortnightly, please take to Mrs. Fleming before October 21st.

Real good folders cost more and are worth it; if you appreciate quality, have your folders made at the Baker's Studio, Alma, Mich. 18572

Mrs. Glen Warden spent the week end in Grand Rapids with her sister.

Dick Hancock and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Laura Hancock, were in Edmore Thursday.

Evert Horton, of Alpena, who has been visiting at the homes of his brother, John Norton and sister Mrs. Bert Waterbury, returned home Monday morning.

Joe Cohen has rented the Howard Willard property, 220 East Centre Street, and has moved there from the Wright House, where he has been staying since his marriage.

Miss Effie Smith, who has been employed as housekeeper for Mrs. G. V. Wright for the past year, has left for Pontiac to accept a similar position at the home of Hon. Patterson.

Frank Streb, of Detroit, proprietor of the Streb Hardware Store, was in the city, and gave M. J. McPhee an order for a suit of clothes. Mr. Streb and Mr. McPhee were old school mates.

H. C. Griffin, a photographer recently doing studio work in Colorado, is now located in Alma and will do home portrait, viewing, enlarging, flashlight and color work. Parties desiring any work in this line will call Bell phone 98. 18554

Merrill Stuckey was in Vestaburg Monday.

Fresh Peanut Candy at Luchini's this week.

Home-Made Bread at Anderson's Restaurant.

Dallas Brock visited in Alma over the week end.

Will Edgar, of St. Louis, was in Alma Monday.

U. P. Cash made a business trip to Ithaca Monday.

Paul Crandell was in Edmore Monday on business.

Ticket drawing at Brunner's beginning next Monday.

Ephe Johnson, of Cadillac, spent a few days this week in Alma.

Attorney John Matthews, of Ithaca, was in the city on business Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eural Race spent Sunday in Ithaca as the guests of her grandparents.

Mable Strong Cleland, of St. Johns, visited friends and relatives in Alma this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Peach, of St. Louis, were guests of Pearce Hayward and wife Sunday.

OYSTERS—We buy them good and their friends keep them fresh. Anderson Restaurant.

Louis Newcomer and wife, of Detroit, are spending a week at the home of S. Newcomer and family.

Try the special blend of Coffee at Anderson's Restaurant, bought in the berry, ground as you buy it.

W. R. Brewer and wife were Sunday visitors at the home of the former's parents in St. Louis.

Andrew McIntosh and wife, of Breckenridge, were guests of his father, M. McIntosh and family Sunday.

De La Genesta returned to his theatre in Shepherd Monday after putting on two nights' entertainment in the Masonic Tent.

William Hill, a former Alma resident, now located in Lake City, visited with Alma friends from Friday evening until Sunday noon.

Joseph F. Sartor, Jr., local Fire Chief, leaves Saturday for New Orleans, Louisiana, to attend the International Fire Chief's Convention.

Mrs. Will Thompson, of Harbor Springs, visited Sunday and Monday as the guest of her daughter, Miss Beulah, who is attending Alma College.

Erwin Forquer, of St. Louis, who has been engaged in the bicycle repair work in this city during the past summer, has moved his family from St. Louis to 413 Euclid Avenue, Alma.

Mr. and Mrs. Cass Zibble, of Bay City, are spending this week as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Brainerd. Tuesday the party motored to Holly to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wade Sherwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Plum and daughter, Bernice, and Mrs. Plum's mother, Mrs. Pollman, drove through from Jackson in their five-passenger machine to visit Pollman Bros., near Alma, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Sherwood, of Middleton, were Wednesday guests of his uncle, C. O. Sherwood and wife.

Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Tanner entertained Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Barger, of Carson, from Saturday until Wednesday.

Miss Nina Smith, of St. Louis, spent several days of last week as the guest of Alma friends, and attended the Gas Company's exhibit. Miss Smith has been employed as book-keeper in the St. Louis branch office.

H. C. Moore gave a lecture Friday at the college, before Dr. Randall's class in History of Education. His talk was about the education of pre-historic man. He brought with him a hundred specimens, and showed the evolution of the axe and the knife. The talk was very interesting and educational.

Mr. and Mrs. John Becker entertained the B. Y. P. U. Society of the Baptist church on Tuesday evening. There were twenty-two present, the regular business of the society was attended to and an "Experience Social" planned for the 24th of October, the proceeds to be used for the building fund. Refreshments were served.

The only accident which has occurred to any member of the Alma College football team happened Thursday afternoon, when Clarence Jessup had a rib on his left side broken. Jessup is a likely football player, and his help will be missed on the squad. Although Jessup will not be able to play any more football this season he will not be out of school but one day.

J. P. LOSEY
Registered Optometrist

Your eyes carefully tested and fitted
119 SUPERIOR ST. ALMA, MICH.

Miss Lillian Goll Sundayed in Breckenridge.

Harry Fulcher, of St. Louis, was in the city Monday.

R. V. Lott visited with his parents in St. Louis Sunday.

O. L. Smith, of Ithaca, was in Alma on business Saturday evening.

Romaine Clark, of St. Louis, was an Alma business caller Monday.

Miss Iva Perrigo spent the week end with her parents on Center Street.

Mrs. Thomas Rycraft, of Forest Hill, spent Sunday with Mrs. Coffenberg.

Mrs. Clinton Nelson entertained her mother, Mrs. Snyder, of Greenville, a few days.

Mrs. John Day left for Midland last week, where she will spend a few days with her son.

Mrs. Geo. Howey, of Vestaburg, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Kuffenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Madden are moving into Armbrury's new bungalow on Lincoln Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter and daughter, of Saginaw, were guests of E. C. Crandell Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Sharrar, accompanied by her children Helen and Lee, spent a few days in Ann Arbor.

Laura Brown, of Traverse City, has been spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Moore entertained the latter's uncle, J. C. McCormick, and family, of Saginaw, Sunday.

Several friends of Geo. Peasley surprised him Wednesday evening at his home in honor of his birthday. Refreshments were served. The guests left, wishing Mr. Peasley many more happy birthdays.

If you Want To Know How To Beautify Your Complexion
—to rid yourself of wrinkles
—to eradicate skin blemishes
—to bring the glow of health to your cheeks—

Don't Fail To Talk With Mrs. H. K. Hopkins
Boston's Noted Beauty Specialist

Mrs. H. K. Hopkins will give free personal advice and a few free facial massages in your own home. Telephone us.

This is Your Opportunity — Take Advantage of it

Bear in mind — Mrs. H. K. Hopkins will be at our store a whole week, commencing Mon. Oct. 26-1914. Don't fail to hear her

Free Daily Beauty Lecture

To follow her advice means a better complexion for you

Grover's Drug Store

Sole distributor of Harmony Toilet Requisites

"THE REXALL STORE"

All the Latest Magazines.

ALMA, MICH.

Mrs. Will Isaman of St. Louis was an Alma shopper Wednesday evening.

John Foglesong, of St. Louis, was in Alma on business Monday.

Miss Clara Thomas, of Bay City, spent Sunday as the guest of Miss Adeline Dowker.

Miss Laura Weese spent Sunday and Monday in Shepherd as the guest of Mrs. Genesta.

Rev. Brownlow and wife returned from Ovid where they spent several days with relatives.

D. A. Brown, the elevator man of Vestaburg, was in the city Saturday evening on business.

H. F. Allman, manager of the Bell Telephone Company, was in St. Louis on business Friday.

Mrs. Fred Stockburger and daughter, Miss Olga, of St. Louis, were Alma callers Friday evening.

Mrs. Mark Madden and Mrs. D. Gorman, of Merrill, spent Thursday as the guests of Mrs. M. J. McPhee.

Mrs. Bert Taft is able to be out again after being confined to her home for two weeks on account of sickness.

Mrs. Nellie Fookes, who teaches the Allen School, near Ithaca, spent the week end with her mother on College Ave.

Mrs. Louis Aultmeyer, of Loraine, Ohio, who has been visiting Mrs. Bert Taft, left for her home Thursday morning.

Lyceum Course coupons at the drug stores and banks. Apply early.

Fletcher and William Gallagher and Clifford Steggall spent Sunday in Bay City.

Reuben Root returned Friday from Flint, where he has been employed for the past month, and will work at the sugar factory.

Bert Hayward, of Breckenridge, spent several days of last week in Alma as the guest of his brother Pearce and wife.

W. I. Foss and family of Bay City motored to Alma Sunday, and visited with several Bay City fellows who are attending college.

Mrs. Vint Richards and daughter Irene, Mrs. C. Flewelling, and Miss Myrtle Isenath spent Sunday with Will Isenath near Elwell.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet Tuesday afternoon, October 20th, with Mrs. E. Standard, 708 State street.

William Greene, a student at the College last year, and a very popular fellow, around the city, has accepted the position of cashier of the Carsonville bank.

The newly organized Alma College twenty-piece band will make its debut at the Ypsi-Alma game Friday afternoon. F. Whittington is leading the fellows and Alma is assured of a band "what is a band."

The Roll of Honor Bank

ESTABLISHED IN 1883

A Good Bank In a Good Town

Don't Invite Burglars to Your Home

by keeping money and valuables there. Deposit your money in this bank and receive 4 per cent for it. Leave your legal papers in a safety deposit box which you can rent at $1.00 per year.

FIRST STATE BANK

Alma, Michigan

Capital $30,000.00

Surplus $30,000.00

DIRECTORS

G. S. Ward, L. A. Sharp, Francis King, P. M. Smith, Carl Washburn, Chas. O. Ward, Chas. G. Rhodes.

Mackinaws For Men and Boys

A light, warm, sensible garment for cold weather, as warm as an overcoat and a great deal cheaper. Just the coat for the out-of-doors man or boy.

Priced at from $5 to $12

Fred Slater